First Aid. Then Billions
Pattern in Alaska
Lies Ups and Downs
Dangerous Taxations

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

THE NEXT war starts
the government, because of the game, will be back to the cost of the war. Figures published
show that the relief
of the country now a
million dollars a year
more are called for
than during the war.
The relief consumed 41
percent of the 1931 income
tax. The government has more than all the tax of 1932. As years
pass, the tax will increase. Veterans will amount to two million a year 10 years
from now. It costs taxpayers to keep the army and navy
in the field.
The government that the government the veterans should be relieved.
The government relief bills should be passed when the next war
starts.

THE KODIAK ISLAND, off
the coast of Alaska, live
the Eskimos, biggest in the world.
They are to shoot them and have
the Eskimo of telling about it.
The Eskimo of Kodiak Island live
in the forest, and if news from the Eskimo, thousands will
be killed for one going to Kodiak.
The Eskimo is believed to have been on Chirikoff deposits of
gold, more precious than gold.
The Eskimo was a fortune day for the Eskimo when Seward bought
the island for eight million dollars.
The Eskimo was fired of the place,
and he fled the sea off the coast
of Kodiak, the finest fur for Russian traders.
The Eskimo is now knowing how many times of times we may get back
million dollars from Alaska
treasures, besides adding a million to our territory.

IMAGINATION can exaggerate
the strangeness of life's ups and downs. In New York a certain
man used to have luncheon
at a restaurant above Chamberlain with Raymond of the House of Greece and Albert
Borah.
The Frenchman always made the man and Greeley said to Albert
Borah one day, after luncheon:
"The Frenchman is fool enough
to say he will be emperor of the world some day." When Albert Borah saw him later, in Paris,
he was Napoleon III, and he
was emperor of the French.
The Frenchman, condemned to death
by the French government, a little
before the end of the Irish rebellion. His Spanish father was a king of a living.
The Frenchman, for his amusement,
is teaching dancing lessons to the British. He promises to absolute the British of allegiance to King George and Ireland will no longer
be a part of England principal or interest in the millions of pounds that
the British advanced to buy Ireland's land from the landlords for the British.
The Frenchman it would be wise for
the British to put herself outside
the British of the Irish to decide.

BUSY SLEUTH OUTLINE PLAN TO CUT TAXES AT MEET HERE

of the crime prevention bureau

ciation, is credited with sending 97 Illinois bank bandits to

County Association Program
Announced in Detail; Aims
at Lower Costs.

SCHOOL SYSTEM HIT

Sessions of Legislature Would
Be Limited to One in 10 Years.

The Taxpayers Association of Marion County last night adopted
a program prepared by its legislative committee, and defined the policy of the association in its efforts to effect reductions in taxes.
The meeting, held in the office of
the Marion chamber of commerce,
was attended by a small group of
members representing every section of the county.

The program was prepared by the legislative committee of the association, headed by Dr. F. C.
Smith, Ray Gatewood and John Rettger assisted in the preparation of the program.

Plans for executing the program
will be formed by the association in the near future, its officers said.
Reductions in state and county
governmental costs are the principal methods of tax reduction outlined in the program.

Would Limit Legislature

The program calls for a statute
to prohibit all governmental employees, excepting elective public officials, from taking active part in politics. Another proposed statute would limit sessions of the legislature for the enactment of
new legislation to one in each 10
years, and would permit special
sessions only by a two-thirds vote
of electors.

Abolishment of all pensions for governmental employees excepting
those which cities might establish
by a majority vote of electors is another part of the program. Laws
repealing the mandatory statutes
fixing salaries of county officials,
abolishing county school superintendents and the present county
school boards and repealing the law which created the office of county dog warden are advocated
by the association.

A statute to regulate salaries of governmental employees to correspond with those paid in private enterprise and changing living
costs is proposed in the program.
The association would repeal the law which created county health
officers and substitute a law to make such officers optional by a majority vote.

Propose County Manager

Recommendations accepted by the association call for unification
of elections and limiting elections
to one in four years, and for compulsory teaching of subjects on taxation and school costs in the public schools. Other recommendations voice opposition to any unemployment insurance legislation
or any change in the present system of financing education.

It would limit the power of the legal profession in defending criminals, extricate the judiciary from politics as much as possible, and
reform the entire criminal code.
Consideration of the county manager plan of government, and of a plan to separate the executive from
the legislative branch of the government are suggested by the committee. The latter recommendation would take away the governor's
veto power and his power to suggest and recommend legislation.

The association is an organization of approximately 400 members,
most of them rural residents. It was formed more than a year ago
on a foundation provided by previous attempts to organize a county tax reduction group.

It includes members of the Farm bureau and grange in its membership, and took an active part in the intensive effort of committees
from the Farm bureau, grange, Marion chamber of commerce and
the association to effect economies
in the county budget last fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Niles Resign
After Five Years at County
Institution.

TO BE EFFECTIVE JUNE 1

Successors Will Be Selected
on Basis of Civil Service Examination.

Resignations of Mr. and Mrs.
W. T. Niles as superintendent and matron respectively of the Marion county children's home have been accepted by the board of trustees
of the home, Mr. Niles announced today.

Mr. and Mrs. Niles will retire
June 1 on account of their health.
They will have headed the institution five years and two months by
that time.

To Select Successors

Selection of successors awaits a civil service examination, which will be held in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Niles and the trustees have made mutual expressions of appreciation for the manner in which the affairs of the home have been administered during the last five years.

The retiring superintendent and matron will make their home on a farm four miles west of Edison.

In submitting their written resignations, Mr. and Mrs. Niles state that "we wish to most heartily thank members of the board for their
courteous and considerate manner toward us," and that "it gives us to leave the work here
in which we have enjoyed your friendship and cooperation."

Commend Work

Praise of the superintendent and matron are contained in the formal acceptance of the resignation, signed by the trustees. "You have been
honest, industrious, thoughtful,
economical and constantly attentive to the duties of the positions, ever on the alert as to what would be for the best interests of the children and the institution,
and never has the board during
your administration had the least
anxiety as to your part in the affairs of the home," the board
states.

CLASSIFICATION TAX LEGALITY IS UPHELD

Court of Appeals Unanimously Decides Ohio Code Is Constitutional.

By The Associated Press

LISBON, O., April 8.—Judge L. T.
Farr of the Seventh district court
of appeals announced here today
that the court had unanimously upheld the constitutionality of the Ohio classification tax law, attacked in a suit brought by E. C.
Lampson of Jefferson. Judge John Pollock of Belmont county wrote
the decision, which will be filed at Jefferson.

Constitutionality of Ohio's new tax classification code was attacked by Lampson, Jefferson publisher, on a number of issues in a mandamus suit filed with the Seventh district court Jan. 25.

He asserted that if classification
in some form is legal, the form prescribed by the tax code violated
the state and federal constitutions
in that it contained discriminations
as to the persons of the same class
and properties of the same class.

Attorney General Gilbert Bett-
man, who personally appeared before the appellate court at Jefferson to present the state's case, took
the position that if any person's taxes are to be increased under the new law out of proportion to his neighbor's or the amount which he paid under the old uniform method of taxation is to the county board of revision for reduction on value or to bring taxation proceedings against the county taxing
officials to prevent unjust increase.

said.

COLUMBUS, O., April 8.—(AP)—
The "what, why, and wherefores" of education supplied the topics of numerous addresses delivered today before the opening session of the three-day Ohio educational conference at Ohio State

Virtually every phase of educational work is represented in the numerous sections that will hold
group meetings during the conference.

MARION SCHOOLS CLOSE FOR MEET

Marion public schools were closed today while teachers
and principals attended the state conference at Ohio State university. The county
schools were not closed.
Teachers were required to attend the conference unless
special permission was granted
to visit schools in neighboring cities.

C. B. Rayburn, superintendent of county schools, left
last night to attend the conference. George A. Bowman,
superintendent of public
schools, will attend the conference either today or Sat-

Donithen Wednesday afternoon,
and Dr. T. H. Rutherford of Ma-

GO-BETWEENS WAIT FOR NEW SUMMONS

Optimism at Hopewell Ebbs
with Kidnap Search at Standstill.

By The Associated Press

HOPWELL, N. J., April 8.—
Three intermediaries seeking the kidnaped Lindbergh baby awaited
a new summons to parley today,
while in Hopewell optimism ebbed.
The three—Near Admiral Guy H.
Burrage, John H. Curtis and Rev.
H. Dobson-Passcott, all of Worcester, Mass.—have not abandoned hope of getting Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr., back through a person who approached them and represented
himself as a go-between for the kidnapers.

All three were in Norfolk, pursuing a wildcatting policy, while
police who expressed skepticism
about that angle of the search went
on with the custom work of checking and restricting traffic. Mr. Curtis has announced that he has had contact with the person he believes to be sitting for the kidnaper, and that he was assured the baby was well. Today he was wondering what for another search
would be.

Statements were an excuse a few minutes ago on the Lindbergh
case was the Lindbergh case, it was after a moment's rest
that the three were back to the search.

Marion has also been
with more than 100
participating in the contest.

ior has accepted the invitation of Senior President John Black of Lima to be queen of the prom
April 22. She was escorted to the 1928 senior prom by Class President Harold Krias and was homecoming queen at the navy football game last fall.

Saturday Last Day for Double Votes in Contest

Saturday will be the last day in the 1932 vacation travel contest
when 200 votes will be given for
each dollar spent in the participating stores.

To give every junior and senior
boy and girl in the high schools
of Marion and 35 surrounding communities an opportunity to qualify in the contest and to reward those contestants who have
put forth such wholehearted effort to gain votes, the sponsors
decided upon the double vote plan

MISS FOREMAN IN HOSPITAL

Dramatic Coach at Harding
May Lose Sight of Right Eye.

CAR SKIDS ON TRACKS

Party Enroute to Columbus
To Attend Educational
Conference.

Five Harding High school teachers were injured, one of them
seriously, in an automobile accident in Columbus today, according to an Associated Press story.

Miss Lucille Foreman, 34, of 733
east Church street, teacher of journalism and in charge of dramatics at Harding High school,
suffered severe cuts about the head and may lose the sight of her
right eye, the news dispatch said.

The other injured were Miss Paney Rauhauser, 40, of 319 Linden place; Miss Mabel Turney, of 218 east Washington avenue; Miss Margaret Wolfley, 35, of 707 east
Church street; Miss Grace Kline,
33, of 291 Thew avenue.

Car Skids on Rails

The accident occurred in north
Columbus when Miss Rauhauser,
driver and owner of the car in which all were riding, attempted to pass a truck. The car skidded
across the street and struck a telephone pole. The teachers had driven to Columbus to attend the twelfth annual state education
conference at Ohio State university.

They were given medical attention at University hospital. Only Miss Foreman was seriously injured. Surgeons made an attempt to save the sight of her right eye,
which was badly cut by glass.

Four of the five left Marion today at 7:30 a. m., stopping in Delaware for Miss Turney, who last night went to her home there. They planned to be present at the opening of today's session of the conference at 9:30 a. m.

Information received here by parents of the teachers indicated that all but Miss Foreman had been discharged from the hospital after receiving medical attention for slight cuts and bruises. Miss Rauhauser and Miss Wolfley planned
to remain in Columbus tonight and
to attend Saturday's session of the
conference.

Widow in Front Seat

Miss Foreman was sitting in the front seat with Miss Rauhauser
when the accident occurred. Broken glass caused Miss Foreman's injuries and also slightly cut Miss Rauhauser. The three in the rear seat escaped with slight bruises.

UNKNOWN MAN LEAPS TO DEATH IN FALLS

Victim Overpowers Patrol-
man; Swept Over Niagara River Rapids.

By The Associated Press

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., April
8.—Overpowering a reservation patrolman who tried to prevent him
from ending his life, an unidentified
man, leaped into the Niagara
river near Horseshoe point early today and was carried over the American Falls to his death. A hat found on shore bore the label of a Cleveland department store and reservation officials think the victim may have come from that city.

Guardman Joseph M. Thorstein,
who attempted to prevent the man
from throwing himself into the water, said the victim was an Irish man, weighed at least 250
pounds, and appeared to be from 30
to 40 years old.

Police are holding the hat in the hope that it may prove a clue to his identity.

LANDRUM CHARGED WITH LOAN ROLLOUT

tral street had been held up, was

ditional indictment filed today

On the Budget

(By Eugene Special)

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., April
8.—This Optim Mills that is now treasurer of the deficit,
has accused him of being
"the best treasurer since Alexander Hamilton." But I have heard Jack Garvey himself say that Mills was a
"mighty able and conscientious man."

Congress seems to have estimates
of the budget on "what the people ought to make in 1932."
Mills says: "You ought to make that much, but who
are they going to make it out
of?"

Well, just come that Frank Mills was best, Frank is like
one of our family, but the Mills said that it's not dangerous. It's a fine, intelligent
man. That's one profession
I have never met a "dummy"
in.

Marion Job Drive Wins Praise of U. S. Leaders

Local Legion Post Commander Receives Letter of Commendation from Director of National Movement; Ask Details of Plan Used Here.

Commendation of national leaders in the "war against the depression campaign" has been won by Marion's job drive, which already has produced 110,000 work hours.

"Your citizens are certainly doing a wonderful job," Mark T. McKee of Chicago, executive director of the national employment commission of the American Legion, states in a letter received yesterday by J. W. Llewellyn, commander of the local Legion post.

"Your example should be an inspiration to other cities," McKee said.

The American Legion, the National Advertisers association and the American Federation of Labor are conducting the "war against depression campaign." The local Legion post's participation in this campaign was in its cooperation with the Marion chamber of commerce and the Federated Women's club.

So successful has been the local drive that the national campaign committee has asked for detailed information telling how the drive was conducted.

"A few cities whose campaign has produced excellent results are being asked to tell details of how it was done. Please give us the details on your drive," Carl Byoir, director of organization for the national campaign, wrote to Mr. Llewellyn.

Daily reports on the progress of the local drive were forwarded to the national headquarters by the local Legion post, and the work was reported to the national headquarters.

Defeat of Depression Up to Sellers, Speaker Says

Members of the business community of the nation, editor of the official publication of the United Commercial Travelers, Hotel Marion 3500, condition of business not due, as is pointed out, to the lack of but to the lack of the old-fashioned selling more than a half-billion dollars being hoarded in safety deposit boxes in the country, there can be no lack of buying power, he declared.

Cause of Fear

The collapse of business was largely blamed by the speaker upon fear and lack of confidence and the continued depression upon lack of selling power. Chills of great losses sustained in the collapse of the markets, sent up by some who were stockholders and some who were not, sent a chill of fright into the hearts of those who have money, the speaker said, with the result that they immediately crawled into their shells and buying received a terrific blow.

Unable to sell, merchants stopped buying and factories stopped manufacturing, forming what the speaker termed a "vicious circle." It is now only necessary to break this circle to reestablish business, he said, and the hope of this, he declared, rested upon the business man and the salesman.

Price cutting as a means of increasing business was condemned by the speaker. No permanent good, he said, could come from selling goods at or below cost. Instead of using this as a means to encourage buying, he urged the return to the pre-war methods of creating a demand for the goods. The only basis upon which business can be permanently restored, he said, is on a basis of a reasonable profit for the manufacturer as well as the business man.

Life Too Easy

Spotted by the easy manner in which sales were made immediately following the war, merchants and salesmen, the speaker declared, have lost their real selling ability and now, faced with a critical situation, they have turned "yellow" and instead of returning to the driving salesmanship of pre-war days, are laying down and crying for help.

Money is here, he declared, and it is now up to the business man and the salesman to bring it into circulation. The bankers have tried and failed—the lawyers have tried and failed—and it is now up to the business man and the salesman. The only hope in creating a real wholesome demand is in judicious advertising and real salesmanship.

This plan of meeting the depression, the speaker said, was fostered by the United Commercial Travelers and had been endorsed by President Herbert Hoover and by Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York.

The Stars Say—

For Saturday, April 9.

A DAY of unexpected developments both in private affairs and in business relations may be looked for, according to the mutual aspects and the strong Uranian influence. There may be radical change or upheaval, with travel, adventure and unusual associations and peculiar activities. Strangers may figure largely in the day's doings, but be careful lest there be some irregular or sensational development. This applies particularly in private contacts, with romance conspicuous.

Those whose birthday it is may expect a year of the irregular, unusual or even spectacular with important change or travel, new associations and employment, stung adventures as well as either romantic or sensational developments, which may bring one into the limelight. Literary work, inventions, occultism and unusual avocations may be pushed, but be discreet with strangers and females. A child born on this day should be brilliant, ingenious, adventuresome, and should attain a prominent place in the public favor or service.

Y Circus Draws Good Crowd on Opening Night

Real Big Top Atmosphere Given by Band, Acrobats, Side-shows and Barkers; Washington Bicentennial Observed by Minuet Staged by 14 Girls.

Tumblers tumbled, clowns cavorted, balancers balanced, the band played, the crowd applauded and Marion enjoyed its first circus of the season.

Attended by a capacity crowd the Bungle Bros. and Sorepaw's circus gave the first performance of a two-night stand at the Y last night. The second will be given tonight.

Although a spirit of fun ran through the show, it contained exhibitions of real skill and ability that showed the result of long training. Especially was this true of the hand balancing act by the hand Gilmore and Robert Tuttle, a parallel bar act by Vaughn Fox, Alva Redman, Dallas Johnson, Carl Cudd and Robert Tuttle and a flying ring act by Richard Gilmore, Alva Redman and William Schott.

A touch of the George Washington Bicentennial observance was given the performance in a minuet by 14 girls, garbed in colonial costume, members of Miss Rhea King's gym class, and the posing of figures depicting events in the life of Washington.

Members of the women's gym club wearing bright colored costumes gave color to the performance in their two acts, the first a practical demonstration in how to reduce and the second a sparkling drill with the lights extinguished in which each woman carried two lighted sparklers.

An illuminated letter act by members of the junior and senior gym classes added beauty to the performance. All garbed in white the performers assumed various poses on the two ladders which had been trimmed with colored electric lights.

Two tumbling acts by 24 boys of the Friendly Indian club and six members of the girls' gym club were well carried out and no little skill was shown by the youthful performers. The clown acts were also well performed and their antics brought roars of laughter from the audience.

Eagles Band Plays Music by the Eagles band gave additional circus atmosphere. It was announced by J. Meredith, director of the show, that the band donated services for the two nights. Piano music for the drills and the minuet was furnished by Miss Thelma Hardin while Charles Osterholt served as ring master.

Aband concert which had been planned at the courthouse square before the performance, was interrupted by rain although several numbers were played in front of the Y. M. C. A. building.

The side-show on the first floor of the Y and which contains, according to the barkers, many interesting features, was also well attended.

Jury in Cleveland Trial Gives Verdict After Deliberating Four Hours.

By The Associated Press
CLEVELAND, April 8.—Miss Grace Priests of Pittsburgh was given a verdict for $10,000 today in a breach of promise suit against A. H. Geiger, retired Alliance O. merchant. Miss Priests had asked for $100,000.

A federal court jury of five women and seven men returned the verdict after less than four hours' deliberations.

By The Associated Press
CLEVELAND, O., April 8.—A federal court jury today began consideration of the $100,000 breach of promise suit brought by Miss Grace Priests of Pittsburgh, former pottery decorator and beauty parlor employee, against A. H. Geiger, well-known Alliance business and chairman.

The case was given to the jury of five women and seven men this morning after attorneys finished their arguments and Judge Samuel H. West delivered his charge.

Miss Priests, who said she was 30, testified Geiger, who is 43, promised to marry her and then persuaded her to stay in his hotel room with him on several occasions but that he afterward refused a wedding.

Geiger's testimony characterized Miss Priests as a "gold-digger." He told of buying valuable gifts for her, at her suggestion, and testified they spent many nights together, but that she had understood matrimony was not intended.

The end of their friendship came in 1930, Geiger said. Miss Priests had just returned from a vacation in Atlantic City, when she demanded $5,000, he testified.

Geiger said he told her he could not get that much, and that she replied, "If you don't get it, how would you like to get your name across the top of a paper in black-face type?"

"Are you trying to blackmail me?" he said he asked her.

"Call it that if you like," was her reply, he testified.

Earl J. Barnard, Canton, O., restaurant proprietor, testified the couple often ate in his place and that once he asked them when they were going to be married.

"Geiger said, 'oh, nothing like that,' and Miss Priests said, 'I wouldn't marry the best man on earth,'" Barnard told the jury.

Leo J. Ritter of Pittsburgh, attorney for Miss Priests, brought out early in the trial that Geiger inherited $315,000 from his parents, but witnesses for the defendant said he was $22,891 "in the red."

GROLL SHOOTS 428 TO CRACK RECORD

With Ross Groll, captain of the team, recorded the highest individual score turned in since the league was organized, the No. 1 team of the Marion Revolver association scored a victory last night on the police station range over the No. 2 team captained by Harold Cobb.

Groll shot a score of 428 out of a possible 500 and his teammates added enough points to make the team score 1599. Cobb's marksmen scored a total of 1539.

Armstrong was second high scorer on the winning team with a mark of 384. L. R. Strawser led the losers with 357 and A. Van Kleek was second with 346.

The next shoot will be held Tuesday between team Nos. 2 and 4.

MARTIAL LAW RULE DECLARED IN CHILE

By The Associated Press
SANTIAGO, Chile, April 8.—President Juan Steban Montero, backed by the congress, declared a state of siege through Chile today.

Immediately after the congress approved his request for martial law early today, the president issued a manifesto in which he denounced an alleged conspiracy of opponents of the government to undermine the administration and seize power.

The cabinet resigned last night after a serious run on the Central bank of Chile and a defeat in congress for the president's plan for solving the country's financial troubles.

DARROW UNDECIDED ON PLEA OF DEFENSE

Reliable Source Hints Hearing May Not Reveal Hawaiian's Actual Slayer.

By The Associated Press
HONOLULU, April 8.—It is barely possible the world may never know who killed Joseph Kahanawai, a reliable source revealed today, following selection of a jury to try Mrs. Granville Fortescue, eastern society matron, and there naval men on charges of lynching the young Hawaiian.

This source revealed that not even Clarence Darrow, gray-haired leader of the defense, was certain how far he would go in attacking the second degree murder case against his clients.

May Make Insanity Plea However, two attorneys who figured in sensational murder trials of the southwest United States were here today to confer with Darrow, indicating the defense is prepared, if necessary, to have one of the four accused admit the shooting and plead emotional insanity. Only if forced to this last resort is the defense expected to reveal one of the quartet as the slayer of Kahanawai.

Court adjourned until Monday following the unexpected completion of the jury yesterday. The jury is preponderantly Caucasian, an unusual circumstance for this mid-Pacific meeting place of east and west.

Nevertheless it contains representatives of six nationalities or races—five of American descent, three Chinese, one Dane, one Portuguese, one German and a Hawaiian.

Better Than Expected The ultimate selection was far better than the defense expected, Darrow having predicted not more than three Anglo-Saxons would be seated.

He and others of the defense declined to comment upon the arrival of the two alienists last night on the liner Malolo. The two are Dr. Edward Huntington Williams, and Dr. James Orsborn, both of Los Angeles. They figured in the trial several years ago of William Edward Hickman, who hanged for kidnapping and killing Marion Parker, a Los Angeles school girl.

Whether they would appear in the Fortescue trial, none would say. The evidence against Mrs. Fortescue, Lieut. Thomas H. Massie, her son-in-law, and E. J. Lord, and Albert O. Jones, sailors, is entirely circumstantial since no witnesses the territory has summoned saw the shooting of Kahanawai, as far as known.

Mrs. Della Bond, 63, of 967 1/2 West Center street, died yesterday at 8:15 p. m. A six days' illness of a complication of diseases caused her death.

She was born in Wyandot county April 4, 1869, to Samuel R. and Christina Penrose Houser. Charles S. Bond, to whom she was married Oct. 10, 1888, in Lowell, O., died four years ago.

Mrs. Bond was a member of Wesley M. E. church and the Daughters of America.

She leaves her children, Harold E. Bond, Marion G. Bond and Eunice Bond, all of Ann Arbor, Mich., Mrs. Gladys Lashey of 710 Henry street, Russell Bond of 948 Merkle avenue and Gerald L. Bond of 667 1/2 West Center street, and four brothers and sisters, Harry Houser and Marion Houser of Upper Sandusky, Charles Houser of Tiffin, Mrs. Dora Mann of West Salem, O., and Mrs. Daley Thomas of Marion. One son is dead.

The funeral will be conducted Monday at 2 p. m. at the Schaffner-Queen funeral home on east Center street. Rev. W. Martell George of Wesley M. E. church will officiate. Burial will be made in Marion cemetery. The body is at the funeral home.

PLEADS GUILTY TO HOLDING UP BANK

By The Associated Press
WILMINGTON, O., April 8.—Oscar J. Smith, 35, of Columbus pleaded guilty in common pleas court here today of robbing the First National bank of Blaine, O., of $8,527 last Saturday.

Judge Frank M. Cleveland deferred sentence until tomorrow.

The robbery occurred at closing time, the robber shouldering his way through the door and forcing employees into a vault. He escaped in an automobile after scooping up all the cash in sight.

LAST MEMBER OF FAMILY IS CLAIMED

BUYRUS, April 8.—The last of a family of six children, Miss Fannie Beard, 77, for many years a Buyrus resident, died last night at Lebanon. Five brothers and sisters have died in the last 14 months.

Mrs. Anna Christie of Toledo died Wednesday.

The body will be returned to Buyrus for funeral services. Joint services may be held for Mrs. Christie and Miss Beard. Miss Beard was born in Richland township Aug. 20, 1854.

McFarland at Funeral.

Fire Chief T. J. McFarland was in Columbus this afternoon where he attended the funeral of J. Daniels, former chief of the Columbus fire department, whose death occurred Tuesday. Mr. Daniels had been a member of the Columbus fire department for 40 years and was appointed chief in 1915. He was compelled to retire six years ago because of ill health. The former chief bore the reputation of having served 40 years on the department without having ever been injured on duty.

Installed by Lodge.

Mrs. Ida Robinson was installed as oracle of Loyalty Camp No. 8700, Royal Neighbors of America, at a meeting last night with Mrs. Birdie Baker of Clover avenue.

Mrs. Baker, installing officer, was assisted by the ceremonial marshal, Mrs. Ida Uncapher. Lunch was served in a social hour by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Mary Stewart. A meeting will be held April 21 with Mrs. Robinson at her home at 343 Davis street.

Not only was she the oldest woman ever to make such a trip, but Dr. Grace Murray, 84, of New York, set a record in making the journey from Honolulu to New York in seven days by ship and plane. Dr. Murray flew from San Francisco to Newark, N. J., in a night and a day. She is shown as she left the plane at her journey's end. Asked if she was tired, the gallant old lady replied, "None at all."

CONSERVATIVES WIN IN WISCONSIN VOTE

La Follette Progressive Party Loses Control, Assuring Support of Hoover.

By The Associated Press
MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 8.—A conservative delegation will sound the dominant note for Wisconsin at the Republican national convention at Chicago, in June.

And the LaFollette progressives, lineal descendants of the late Senator Robert M. LaFollette, will relinquish their conservative rule of four years ago. It was almost a certainty today the conservatives had captured 15 and the Progressives only 12 of the state's votes for the presidential nominee in the election last Tuesday.

The outcome means a majority of Wisconsin's delegates will go to the convention with a tacit approval of Hoover's nomination. The Progressives are pledged to support Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska.

In the Democratic primary, Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York made almost a clean sweep, an unusually large vote giving him 25 of the 28 delegates who were in the lead.

HOOVER SEEKS WAYS TO SLASH EXPENSES

President Talks Economy at Cabinet Meeting Prior to Saturday Conference.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, April 8.—Seated at the head of the cabinet table, President Hoover today armed himself with new facts on cutting federal expenditures in preparation for his meeting tomorrow with the house economy committee in the unique move toward balancing the budget.

It was the regular semi-weekly meeting of the cabinet. The President gave to each man present a new instrument—an "economy yardstick."

The affair consisted of a narrow piece of cardboard, printed in various colors, and bearing upon its edges the names of various government divisions and figures running into billions of dollars.

The meeting today was a continuation of the individual conferences held at the White House yesterday immediately after the chief executive invited members of the house committee to come to the White House to explain "the progress made" by it and to afford "the executive an opportunity to make suggestions."

Tomorrow's meeting is an outgrowth of attacks and counter attacks between the White House and capitol hill. A showdown is expected.

Van Assenderp fell in love with the picture so deeply that he journeyed to Abilene, Texas, to meet the original. The affection proved mutual and now Miss Johnson is going to Holland to become Mrs. Van Assenderp.

well, maybe he did go back. Old Jonathan wouldn't raise me up to say he'd been mistaken about Clara not coming in for the rest of the day. He isn't Gars' boss to know everything he's going to do. Oh, Gars' all right!

"Don't you see, David, that I've got to go on? I can't let myself suspect that everything Gars tells me is—is a lie? It isn't, of course. I've got to keep Carley because Gars wants me to and I've got to go on being gay as if—as if I were happy. And I'm going to be! This is only what comes up between married people often—little differences—"

And then Klitty would hold her head high as if to defy the David who couldn't hear her because he wasn't there.

But she was still frightened. There were times when she shrank from Gars' caress, when her heart sank unreasonably at his home-coming. She never called him at

"Forces" because there she might see him. She shrank from seeing him. She might guess the trouble she carried in her heart.

She went to Carol's more frequently. Carol needed her. The Russian "doo-dads" were not selling very well. She offered Carol a loan but Carol shook her head.

"If it were your money, Kitty—"

"Well isn't it mine? What's Gar's mine?" Kitty laughed.

"If he earned it. Don't you know?" Carol's question was significant.

"What do you mean?" And instantly, Kitty was frightened.

Carol laughed. "Why, mother gives him money every time he goes to the house! She pays most of your bills. I saw a lot of them on her desk that day. I had the row. He'd just taken care. Do you mean you didn't know it? Did you think you could live the way you do on what Gar earns—if you can call it that?"

Kitty had the sickening sensation of the floor swaying beneath her. When she spoke her voice sounded queer, brittle. "I knew that—that. The bills had been paid up right away. We'd gone in a little too deep at Christmas time. Gar—just borrowed it."

It made." Mrs. Frew had her clothes made at Felicia's. Dangerous ground.

At Isabel Peters' house one night, playing bridge with Tubby and Isabel and Buck, she heard Isabel tell Tubby that Marge was going abroad in April. Her heart gave a quick involuntary leap of joy.

If Marge went away and stayed away a long time, it would be easier to straighten things out. And going to Bridgewater would help, too.

She ordered the blue brides-maid's dress at Felicia's, as Gar had told her to. He was interested in every detail of it.

He appeared to anticipate their holiday as joyously as she did. And planning for it, talking about it to Gar, going to Felicia's for repeated fittings of the blue dress helped Kitty put out of her mind the torment she had suffered.

One evening Gar was detained downtown.

She decided that she would go to Dorcas'. She wasn't afraid of seeing David, now. She wanted to know about his book. He must have had some word. She called Dorcas on the telephone.

"I've just turned the lock on my door. Kitty, but I'll let you in."

peker face, so I imagine we'll have to reserve judgment until Friday night, when we see them together.

Did couldn't be so cruel," Lillian said with sudden passion, and her twisted face had no resemblance to a "peker" face.

"Of course not," I said, something to end the conversation. I was glad of the telephone interruption. When I answered it, my eyes flew to Lillian's.

"Eh?" my lips framed without sound, and she nodded. I answered Lillian Fairfax's query.

"Is Mrs. Graham there?"

"To Lide," I said easily. "This is Maize."

"Oh! Hello there!" Her voice held a warm, friendly note that I had not heard in a long time. "I don't need to ask how you are. The Dixie kid says you're blooming, a peach. I just flew in, and while perched on the swinging bar, he chatted about a party you're going to sing Friday night. I'm thrilled to learn that you're asking me, and I want to ask you a big favor. May I bring a man with me?"

There was a coquettish note to her voice which I guessed was meant for Dixie, young enough to be the telephone to hear me.

"A dozen, if you like," I returned.

"The more men at a dance the merrier."

Then she wouldn't see David. But she went to Ketchum street nevertheless.

Dorcas was wearing the old flannel dressing-gown, the soft, hassled slippers. Her appearance reminded Kitty of that night David had brought her to the house.

"Where's David?" Kitty asked after an hour's casual talk.

"Out in the country," Dorcas told her.

"He'd gone," Kitty then, without a word to her. Kitty did not reason this. David never called her, that a her meetings with him had come from her suggestion. She allowed herself a little feeling of hurt. Then at once it occurred to her that the book might have been rejected. David had gone to the little house to face down his disappointed appointment.

"Has he heard from those publishers?" she asked quickly.

Dorcas smiled. "Yes. Didn't you know? Newwood sent for him. He went to New York last week."

"Oh, then they've taken it," Kitty's joy brought Dorcas' glance levelly on her.

"No, they turned it down. It was too soon. That's their exact word for it. Probably it reflected David's state of mind while he was writing it."

The calmness of Dorcas' manner exasperated Kitty. A lot of hurt she was to poor David.

"If you'll," David stand by me—more," she began a little indignantly. "Oh, Dorcas, David needs you, lot! And he's too proud to let you see."

"He doesn't need me?" Dorcas said flatly, tonelessly.

"But he does." Why David's David's in love with you!"

Dorcas laughed.

"You talk like a goose, Kitty. You're the one who is blind! David never has cared for me, in the way you mean. That's absurd! I might have made him, if I'd tried. I wouldn't try, if he didn't, would I?—We've talked it over, and he could have taken what he had given me but I didn't choose to content myself with any half loaf. I see that I was wise—"

"Oh, Dorcas, you're all wrong!" "Wrong?" Dorcas flared, rose abruptly and stood over Kitty, her eyes angry. "Can you tell honestly, Kitty, that you don't know that David is desperately in love with you?"

Madge Learns That Edith Fairfax Will Bring a Man to the Party.

HELENA BRINTON was delightfully cordial, almost effusive, when I told her over the telephone of the dinner dance I was giving. There is no man more socially-minded than Helena, and she was plainly delighted at the chance to join us.

"It's so sweet of you to think of us," she gurgled. "I know Sam and Charlie will be as glad to come down as I am. Just wait a second; I'll ask them."

She returned to the telephone a few seconds later with undiminished enthusiasm.

"They both want me to thank for them," she said, "and to tell them that they will be so glad to come down. It just fits in with our plans. We were going to telephone the children must come not later than the end of this week. Now we can bring them back."

"We shall be sorry for that," said heartily, then, guessing suspense back of me, and yet I could see Madge's face, I "but we are so glad you all can come down. Please go before six, if possible. Dinner seven-thirty."

"We'll be there on the morrow," she promised. "Is Carolyn?"

"Yes, and anxious to talk to

"Is That Edith's Rose?"
 "Oh, he can dance this man!" she said, "and kiss his sister!" I could imagine her sideline provocative glance at Dicky as she spoke. "You know him. That fourth cousin of mine, Dr. Jim Paige. I got him on my hands for a week and as he went home anywhere without me, I feel sort of duty-bound to drag him along. You're a dear to let me bring him! We're to talk to the Ducky-bird? No? So long then!"

The recorder clicked, and I hurried on to my desk. "So this was the man Edith was employing now trying to make Dicky jealous?"

BRAN also furnishes iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is similar to that of lettuce. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it clears the intestines of waste.

How much better to use ALL-BRAN than to abuse your system with pills and drugs—often harmful.

Two tablespoonfuls daily will overcome most types of constipation—in serious cases, with even meal. If your intestinal trouble not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Use as a cereal with milk or cream, or in cooking. At all grocers in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Liquor Served by Candidate Not Vote Law Violation, Court Rules

By The Associated Press
ST. PAUL, Minn., April 8.—The state supreme court today ruled that C. E. Tuttle of Hastings, Minn., register of deeds of Dakota county, did not violate the corrupt practices act when he gave away four drinks of liquor to residents of his constituency during the 1930 campaign. His election as register was confirmed.

The evidence showed Tuttle gave away two glasses of wine and two bottles of beer at his home. It was held the drinks were given as acts of hospitality and not to influence voters. There was no talk about Tuttle's candidacy at the time, the court said.

"The weight of authority," said the decision by Chief Justice S. B. Wilson, "seems to be that laws regulating or prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquor are aimed at the traffic in liquor, rather than the friendly acts of hospitality with no intent to evade the law.

"The question, however, is an open one in Minnesota. We leave it open."

The supreme court upheld the Dakota county district court, which denied the petition of O. W. Englebert, the defeated candidate, in contesting Tuttle's election.

OHIO EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE OPENS

Wide Range of School Problems Discussed by Experts.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, wife of the governor of New York, told the parent-teacher association section at the conference.

She asserted that education must be accepted as the "open door" to all advancement. We are coming to realize that education is more important than ever before as with the increase in machinery all human beings work fewer hours, have more hours of leisure and in many so called diversions where there is danger, youth has not been taught to use their free time profitably.

Mrs. Roosevelt criticized those who argue that the teacher leads an easy life and should therefore receive lower pay.

"I always long," she declared, "to place these wise men for a few years in a teaching position. No teacher can be successful who does not carry the children in her care constantly on her mind and heart during the school term; it is not only academic work, it is social work and requires patience and self-discipline and often courage of a high order."

Calamity Howlers Hit
The "calamity" James and Johns who paint this rising generation as a mob of trivial minded, glib, glibbling, sex-crazy degenerates, were criticized by George S. Pierce of West Technical High school, Cleveland.

Addressing the physical sciences section of the educational conference, Pierce said such critics "either are utterly ignorant or deliberate liars."

"Most of the faults these young people do exhibit," he continued, "are due to earnest but rather clumsy attempts to imitate some of the blatant asses of our generation who go galloping about braying their disregard of law and decency. Even we teachers are apt to underestimate the quality, caliber and maturity of these boys and girls as they graduate from high school. We think of them, speak of them, and worse yet, teach them as kids."

Education Still Lacking
Dr. Joy E. Morgan, of the national education association told the teacher training section that "in spite of all the gains that have been made in arousing ambitions and lifting the standard of living among our people, 50 per cent of the population is still too little educated to have either high earning or buying power."

Savings of $469.62 in the prisoners food bill at the county jail in the last three months have been effected by Sheriff C. C. Eyer and his assistants, his records show. The average cost of a meal for the period was 15.4 cents. The maximum cost allowed a meal is 25 cents.

Instead of spending the allotted $1208.50 for serving 4834 for the three-month period, Sheriff Eyer expended $738.88, a saving to the county of $469.62.

DIES ON HEARING OF INHERITANCE

By International News Service DENVER—Shock upon hearing of his brother's death and that he was sole heir to $20,000 resulted in the death of Alexander McGavock, 74-year-old shoemaker of Glenarm, County Antrim, Ireland, according to word received here. William McGavock, 77, died recently in Hot Springs, Ark. He had come to Denver in 1880 from Ireland, but Alexander was unable to join his brother because of a crippled condition.

William worked on construction gangs and as a railroad section boss. Shrewd investments pyramided his small savings. He bequeathed his fortune to Alexander. Denver attorneys are now searching for other relatives of McGavock.

EXPULSED EDITOR TO SUE COLLEGE

By The Associated Press NEW YORK, April 8.—Reed Harris, expelled student editor of the Columbia University Spectator, plans to sue the institution. The suit, in the nature of a test of the right of the universities to expel students, will demand about $100,000. Attorney Raymond L. Wise said the figure would be approximately that sum in announcing the suit last night. "We are motivated by the principle of the freedom of the press," Harris said. "I am not going back into the university, the answer said."

Just take Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin. A little every day or so, until you feel the origin in your body feels the improvement. The next time you have a bilious attack, or feel all bound-up, take this delicious syrup instead of the usual cathartic. The constant use of cathartics is often the cause of a sallow complexion and lines in the face. And so unnecessary!

Would you like to break yourself of the cathartic habit? At the same time building health and vigor that protects you from frequent sick spells, headaches, and colds? Get a big bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin today. Use often enough to avoid those attacks of constipation. When you feel weak and run-down or a coated tongue or bad breath warns you the bowels need to be stimulated. Give it to children instead of strong laxatives that sap their strength. It isn't expensive.

NINE-INCH WINGED BUTTERFLY CAUGHT

By International News Service LONG BEACH, Calif. A butterfly with nine-inch wings and an eight-foot tail that could paralyze a man with an electric shock, were among a large collection of natural history specimens taken from the yacht Samona II just back from the Amazon jungles.

The yacht completed a 25,000-mile cruise with William J. Hole, Los Angeles capitalist and owner of the yacht, Albert Colburn, merchant, and Lieut. Jack V. Deuel, aviator, and a crew of 16 sailors.

The sportsman scientists collected rare specimens of birds, reptiles, fish and butterflies off Coco Island in Nicaraguan waters. Hole harpooned a sea bat which weighed two tons and was 18 feet across.

In the Amazon, the adventurers met both friendly and hostile natives. Besides sailing 1,200 miles up the Amazon river, the yachtmen circumnavigated South America.

IN MYSTIC HINDU SECT

Miss Cook First American Aryan

By The Associated Press
MOUNT ABU, India, Nila Cram Cook, the 21-year-old American who recently became a convert to Hinduism, has been forced to postpone her plan to enter Gandhi's colony at Ahmedabad by the imprisonment of the Mahatma.

In the interim Miss Cook has become a disciple and pupil of the famous Hindu teacher, Jaina Yogi, Shree Shant Vija Maharaja, at his retreat in the hills of romantic Rajputana.

Miss Cook has become known throughout India as the first "American Aryan." Her admission into the mysteries of the Brahmin community attracted even greater notice than the conversion a few years ago of Nancy Miller, of Seattle, who married the former Maharaja of Indore.

Ordinarily Hindu laws do not provide for the conversion of a foreigner, but Miss Cook was admitted into the Arya Samaj sect on the ground that, according to the priests, she had lived in India for thousands of years ago in another incarnation, and had only strayed temporarily from the spiritual realm.

While the priests were chanting Vedic hymns, Miss Cook was instructed to spend an hour in meditation. When, after the hour, she opened her eyes, the entire Brahmin community had assembled.

Women strewed her path with flowers and garlanded her body, and Miss Cook then was conducted into the inner sanctuary of the temple, where ancient Sanskrit prayers were recited and she was given marigold petals and sacred water to sprinkle upon herself.

What Rites Require
This rite is peculiar to the Hindu, who teach that before worshipping the Almighty a devotee must first worship the god in himself, Atma, the higher, immortal self being considered the purest manifestation of God in the cosmos.

"May the return to our sister from Patala-Loka (America), the antipodes of ancient India) be a sign to us all of the brotherhood of nations and of the oneness of religious devotion," said the officiating priest as he led the American girl from the inner sanctuary.

Pandit Daulat Ram, leader of the Shrinagar Brahmin community then announced that the Hindu name of Nila Nagini had been given Miss Cook as the first American Aryan.

WOMAN BURNED IN EXPLOSION OF GAS

KENTON, April 8—Mrs. J. Starling Clover is recovering from serious burns received about the face, head and shoulders when gas in the oven of a range exploded, showering her with flames. The blast occurred as the Kenton woman opened the oven door, the accumulated gas being ignited by a lighted broiler on the range.

MAJOR LEAGUES WILL BE LUCKY TO BREAK EVEN THIS SEASON

1932 Race, However, Promises To Put About $10,000,000 in Circulation

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
NEW YORK, April 8.—Major league baseball, even if it draws no better than last year, figures to put between $8,000,000 and $10,000,000 into circulation during the 1932 campaign.

Despite its proportions and well-established organization, the big league game as a whole will be lucky to break even in 1932.

Nine of the 16 clubs finished "in the red" last year. The majority this season again will likely have difficulty keeping off the financial shoals, despite economies effected by the reduction of salaries and the player limit.

Only three clubs can count on doing a million-dollar business—the New York Yankees and Giants and the Chicago Cubs. Brooklyn was in this class two years ago and is one of the biggest potential money-makers in either circuit but the Flatbush folks are fickle.

Cincinnati and Detroit, two clubs that were hit hard at the "gate" last season, hope to do much better as a result of energetic measures taken to make them more conspicuous in the pennant races.

The world champion Cardinals don't make much even when they win.

All the magnates are hoping there will be no duplication of the one-sided finishes of 1931. Attendance last September fell off like the leaves of Autumn when the Athletics and Cardinals ran away from the pack.

Won't Use Stadium.

By The Associated Press
CLEVELAND, O., April 8.—Alva Bradley, president of the Cleveland baseball club, has asked Mayor Ray T. Miller to eliminate the club "as a prospective user" of Cleveland's new municipal stadium this year. The city and the baseball club failed to agree on rental terms.

In State Tournament.

By The Associated Press
SPRINGFIELD, O., April 8.—Nine volleyball teams from all sections of the state will gather here Saturday morning bent on debasing Springfield as the state volleyball champion. Teams entered beside Springfield include Massillon and Lima.

COUNTRY CLUB WILL OPEN ON SATURDAY

Both Marion Courses in Excellent Condition; Full Tournament Schedules Planned.

Both of Marion's golfing layouts will be thrown open for the 1932 season this week. The Marion Country club, a private organization, will be the first to swing into action for the season when the course is opened to members on Saturday. The Mar-O-Del, a public layout south of the city, will be opened officially for play on Sunday. Both courses are in excellent condition for such an early date. Charles Ulrich will manage the Mar-O-Del course again this season. Charles Isaly is chairman of the greens committee at the Country club.

With a new professional on hand to take charge of the course the nine hole layout of the Marion Country club will be officially thrown open to its members Saturday. Martin Kavanaugh of the Three Rivers Country club in Cincinnati will serve as club pro at the Country club here this season. The Country club course is a private layout is located four miles west of the city on the Prospect pike.

Plans are under way at the Country club for one of the biggest seasons in several years. The club will sponsor numerous club tournaments throughout the season and will also take part in inter-city club competition as in former seasons. The club may also sponsor some invitational tournaments during the summer.

The Country club course is in first class condition for play. Good weather conditions have made the greens exceptionally fast for this early in the year.

Several new hazards will be added to the course within a short time, Ulrich reports. Some of these have already been constructed. Par for the course will remain at 27 the same as last season.

The Mar-O-Del will sponsor a full tournament schedule this summer the same as last season. The tournament schedule has not been arranged yet but will probably be completed within a short time.

LEADERS HOLD POSTS IN A. B. C. TOURNEY

24 Cities To Roll Tonight as Tournament Approaches Close.

By The Associated Press
DETROIT, Mich., April 8.—Out-of-town teams will hold the drives for the remainder of the American Bowling Congress tournament, now in the home stretch.

Tonight, 24 cities will send teams in quest of the highest honors in bowling.

Two squads of 64 teams among them. Cleveland's highly touted Canfield club, failed to dislodge the team leaders last night. On the afternoon shift, Eddie Priebe, young Detroit, refused to be discouraged by three splits in the first six innings of his final game, and struck out from the seventh inning for a 211 score. His total of 714 gave him fourth place in the singles and boosted his grand total to 1,955 for third place in the all-events.

Everett Scott, former big baseball player, teamed with Eddie Kraft of Fort Wayne, Ind., to take ninth place in the doubles with 1,285. With a perfect score in eight, in his third game, Scott fell off after ten strikes, but his 280 stands as second high game of the tournament.

LEVINSKY STARTS TRAINING FOR BOUT

By The Associated Press
CHICAGO, April 8.—It seems that "Leaping Lena" Blackburn has made a serious fighting man out of her kid brother, King Levinsky, the up and coming heavyweight from Maxwell street.

The king used to spend most of his time tossing threats at his toes instead of jumping into serious training, but today he started out on a three weeks drill to get ready for his 10 round battle with Mickey Walker at the Chicago stadium.

Manager "Lena" it is reported, showed the king just what money can do during his vacation in the south and the ex-fish peddler is more serious about success than ever before.

AMATEUR BOXERS IN MEET AT CINCINNATI

By The Associated Press
CINCINNATI, O., April 8.—With every leading amateur boxer in Cincinnati, Dayton, Columbus, Akron, Toledo, Springfield, and Oxford, O., and Covington and Newport, Ky., scheduled to take part, the Ohio district A. A. U. boxing championships promises to be the largest ever held.

The bouts will start Saturday night and will run over until Monday evening. No bouts, however, will be held on Sunday. Winners in the championship classes will be sent to New York to take part in the national senior A. A. U. championships at Madison Square Garden April 26-28.

SCORES AT BOWIE

Hank Mills, 16-year-old jockey who has ridden more than 100 winners since last June, scored his first victory in the east recently on F. A. Griffiths' Aldershot at Bowie, Md. Mills, who comes from Montrose, Colo., rides for the Wheatley Stables of Ogden Mills, secretary of the treasury, and Mrs. H. C. Phipps.

Training Camp Highlights

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., April 8.—The New York Yankees checked up on individual batting averages today and discovered Sammy Byrd, reserve outfielder, was the leading hitter of the spring training camp.

The Yankees stopped over here yesterday for an exhibition game. Babe Ruth and company came up on the short end of a 5 to 4 score against the Columbus Red Birds of the Association.

NORFOLK, Va.—Hack Wilson, portly outfielder for the Brooklyn Dodgers, seems to have won his battle with old man avoirdupois. When Wilson reported for training he weighed 220 pounds. Now he's down to a mere 207, five pounds lighter than he was two years ago when he hit 56 home runs for the Chicago Cubs.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—The New York Giants have found Eddie Moore a mighty useful utility infielder. Eddie has filled in at second, shortstop and third at various times and has been batting well.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—If either the Athletics or the Phillies feel like working hard today, there's nothing to stop them, but neither team has much to gain by it. The Phils clinched the mythical "volley championship" for the third consecutive year yesterday, taking their third game from the A's, 3 to 2.

TERRE HAUTE — The White Sox are suffering with outfield trouble. Satisfied with his infield and pitching staff, Manager Lew Fonseca wants speedier men in the outfield.

KANSAS CITY — Chicago's Cubs expect a great day in Cincinnati next Tuesday. First, they expect to drop the Reds for a flying start in the National league race, and secondly, they hope to convince the Rhine-landers that they need money worse than they do Babe Herman. Manager Rogers Hornsby admits the team wants Herman and is crying for an outfielder who can hammer the ball.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn.—Effective pitching by Sarge Connally and Thornton gladdened the hearts of the Cleveland Indians today as they resumed hostilities with the Chattanooga Southern association club. Chattanooga scored three runs off Pete Jablonowski in the first three innings, yesterday, but were less before the Sarge and Lefty, and the Tribe won 4 to 3. Hodapp, Montague and Connatser brightened the encounter with a triple play.

DETROIT.—The 1932 version of the Detroit Tigers makes its bow on the home-town lot today, unless rain intervenes, and Whitlow Wyatt was Manager Stanley E. Harris' pitching selection for the homecoming game against the New York Giants. The Bengals ended their training tour yesterday by losing to the Giants in Springfield, Ill., 5 to 4.

SCHMELING TO OPEN TRAINING MAY 10

NEW YORK, April 8.—Max Schmeling, German holder of the heavyweight championship, will start training May 10, near Kingston, N. Y., for his title match with Jack Sharkey of Boston. Schmeling, due to arrive here today, will make a short exhibition tour ending at Fort Wayne, Ind., April 28. The title bout will be held in New York, June 16.

'STRONG MAN' BILLED FOR WRESTLING BOUT HERE MONDAY NIGHT

Walter Padolak To Meet Suleman Bey in Feature Battle at Shovel.

Not only a wrestler of more than average ability but the strongest man on the American continent. That's the way Walter Padolak is described. Padolak is billed to appear at the Steam Shovel gym next Monday in the headline bout of the regular Monday night wrestling card. Padolak will tackle the terror of the padded mat, Suleman Bey, the Turkish grappler who enjoys committing mayhem on an opposing wrestler more than the average person enjoys eating.

Padolak is new to Marion mat circles, never having appeared here before. It is almost a safe bet that he will be very well known here before he completes his Monday night stay. When two grapplers like Bey and Padolak get together in the same ring, most anything can happen, in fact is likely to.

Padolak claims to hold the weight lifting record of the world. He is only 23 years old but tips the Fairbanks at 215 pounds. His most prized feat is the lifting of 650 pounds dead weight off the floor. Padolak will appear on Center street between Main and State about 1 p. m. Monday to demonstrate his strength by pulling four automobiles with his teeth.

In the semi-final Monday night, Karl Davis, popular Columbus wrestler will meet Bob Montgomery, another newcomer to these parts. Montgomery has only recently invaded this district, coming here from Houston, Texas. He also weighs more than 200 pounds and will probably provide plenty of opposition for Davis. Davis is well known in Marion as the wrestler who met Joe Savoldi here several weeks ago.

The Monday night program appears likely to be one of the most exciting that has been offered here in several weeks. All of the principals are rough and tough and like to battle it out from start to finish.

Two Join Conference.

By The Associated Press
BLUFFTON, O., April 8.—Probationary admission of Wilmington and Cedarville colleges as members of the Northwest Ohio conference was announced yesterday by A. C. Burck, Bluffton college athletic director, and president of the conference. The new members will supplant Bowling Green and Toledo which withdrew to enter the Ohio conference.

PLANS "COMEBACK"

Jess Willard, former heavyweight boxing champion who now is 49 years old and weighs 300, says he plans to go into training for some exhibition bouts.

GRAIN VALUES TURN LOWER

Opening Unchanged; Chicago Wheat Soon Undergoes Material Setback.

By The Associated Press.
CHICAGO, April 8.—Downturns in grain prices early today reflected weakness of securities. Relative strength of wheat quotations at Liverpool was virtually ignored. Opening unchanged to lower, Chicago wheat futures underwent a material setback all around. Corn started unchanged to 1/4 off and subsequently suffered a general fall.

Wheat market recedings were in the face of continued adverse crop conditions southwest and west indicating that persistent drought was taking a heavy toll from the 1932 prospective yield. Estimates of Kansas wheat damage were close to 20 per cent. Meanwhile, a bearish factor was enlarged shipments from Argentina, totaling 5,074,000 bushels this week, against 3,451,000 a year ago.

Absence of aggressive buying left wheat at times almost devoid of rallying power, and the market hovered nervously near the day's low point. Lack of demand was likewise apparent in corn, which at 34 1/2 for May outdid the season's bottom price record. Late reaction in Liverpool wheat values added to the dragginess of all grains here. Oats sagged with corn and wheat. Provisions were steadied by firmness of the hog market.
